DANNY OLIVER

Board Director

DAV Charitable Service Trust (CST)

Danny Oliver, a service-connected disabled veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps, was elected to the board of directors of the DAV (Disabled American Veterans) Charitable Service Trust in 2016.

Oliver joined DAV in 1991 after serving in combat in the Persian Gulf War. While on active duty, he helped his fellow Marines obtain their benefits as a chapter service officer. He retired from active duty in 1993. A member of DAV Chapter 88 in Coweta, Oklahoma, he has served in numerous leadership positions at the local, state and national level of the organization.

Currently, Oliver is the DAV Department of Oklahoma adjutant and a member of the National Executive Committee representing the 21st District.

Oliver served on DAV's board of directors from 2013 to 2015 and also serves as president of DAV's State Commanders and Adjutants Association. Outside of DAV, he has served as vice chairman of the Oklahoma Veterans Council, a charter member of the Tulsa Mayors Advisory Council and co-chair of the Veterans Friendly Community Program.

Oliver and his wife, Linda, reside in Coweta, Oklahoma.
