Biographical INFO

DAVID L. TANNENBAUM

Secretary/Treasurer
DAV Charitable Service Trust (CST)

David Tannenbaum was appointed to the board of the DAV (Disabled American Veterans) Charitable Service Trust in 1994 and appointed to his current position of Secretary/Treasurer in 2006.

Tannenbaum is also the Secretary/Treasurer of DAV's State Commanders and Adjutants Association, where he has served since 1993.

Tannenbaum, a service-connected disabled veteran, retired as a lieutenant colonel in 1985 from the U.S. Army after 30 years of service. He was an artillery officer serving in both air defense and field artillery assignments. In addition, he had assignments in the areas of military intelligence and nuclear weapons. His duty with troops included battery, battalion, group and brigade assignments with the Nike Ajax and Nike Hercules surface to air missile systems as well as custodial assignments with several Greek Army artillery units. Staff assignments included duty with the Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence on the Army Staff, the Office of the Inspector General and 7th Army and his final assignment was with the Defense Nuclear Agency. Tannenbaum is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and the Army War College.

He joined DAV in 1986 and became active in his local chapter, Chapter 15 in Manassas, Virginia, and the Department of Virginia. He served as commander of his chapter and was elected adjutant of the DAV Department of Virginia in 1988, serving in this capacity until 2004.

Within the national organization, Tannenbaum served on the Interim Constitution and Bylaws Committee and the Interim Hospital and Voluntary Services Committee.

Tannenbaum attended Vanderbilt University and received a B.S. in chemistry in 1958.

He now lives in Florida with his wife, Treva.
